of the division's Champions League clubs... England stars Jack Wilshere, Jordan Henderson and Liverpool contract rebel Raheem Sterling are also on City's wanted list to fulfil the quota. Premier League sides must name eight homegrown players in their 25-man squad registered at the beginning of the season. A player is deemed homegrown if they have spent at least three years at any English club before the age of 21, regardless of nationality.

Summary [Extrinsic Entity Error]: Aaron Cresswell has impressed during debut season in Premier League. The left back joined West

Article: Manchester City and Chelsea are set to battle it out for the signature of West Ham left-back Aaron Cresswell this summer... West Ham snapped up Cresswell for £2million from Ipswich last summer but he has adapted to the top tier with relative ease and attracted the eye

Faithfulness Metric Scores

of boosting their quota of homegrown foreign players.

Ham from Championship club Ipswich for £2m. Manchester City and Chelsea are both keen to sign the 25-year-old. Both clubs are mindful